Re: Goldhamer v. Cohen, Docket Number 00-707, 11/2/00
The Supreme Court of the United States
Brief for Amicus Curiae in Support of the Writ
Protecting "Father's Constitutional Rights"

Dear Mr. Levy:

My attorney Mr. Jonathan M. Murdoch-Kitt. Esq. knows I am writing to you.

Enclosed is a full copy of our Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Court of the United States, and an introduction letter from the President of Children's Rights Council of Virginia, Richmond Chapter.

As President of the Children's Rights Council, I am hoping you would be willing to help my son Johnny and me by filing a "Brief for an Amicus Curiae in Support of the Writ," with the Supreme Court of the United States, discussing the protection of "Father's Constitutional Rights," for all American Fathers!"

Mr. Levy, I am only asking for an uncomplicated Brief for Amicus Curiae in Support of the Writ, discussing protecting "Father's Constitutional Rights." It does not have to be very complex, but I believe that with the support of the "Children's Rights Council," it may encourage the Supreme Court of the United States to grant our Writ of Certiorari, and hear the case. It is my understanding that if the Supreme Court of the United States grants our writ, then the "Children's Rights Council would get another "Bite of the Apple," by filing a more complicated "Brief for an Amicus Curiae in Support of the Petitioner.

According to Rule 15.3 and Rule 37, of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States, the brief must be filed within 30 days after the case is placed on the docket. Our case, Docket Number 00-707, was placed on the Docket November 2, 2000. Therefore, as the Clerk of the Court explained, a "Brief for an Amicus Curiae,' must be postmarked by midnight, Monday, December 4, 2000. In addition, Rule 37.2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States also provides that filed with the brief, should be a written consent of all parities.

Mr. Levy, as you know, in one of the few cases heard by the Supreme Court of the United States involving "Father's Rights," in Michael H. v. Gerald D., 491 U.S. 110 (1989); Mr. Michael L. Oddenino, CRC General Counsel filed a "Brief for an Amicus Curiae." urging reversal. Our case differs since the parties were married, and the child was born in legal wedlock. We are asking the Court to review the Constitutional Right of a Father (Non–custodial Parent) to have visitation with his or her child, as well as the child's Constitutional Right to visit with his or her Non-custodial Parent.

Since Mr. Oddenino filed a "Brief for an Amicus Curiae," with the Supreme Court of the United States, urging reversal in Michael H. v. Gerald D., 491 U.S. 110 (1989), he may recall the specific details required to file a brief in the Supreme Court of the United States and may have retained some of the research from the prior writ. If allowable by the Court, I would be more than happy to assist.

Please let me know if you can help us as soon as possible. Thank you for your assistance and support!

Sincerely,

/s/ John B. Goldhamer

Re: Cohen v. Goldhamer

Dear Mr. DiJoseph:

I represent Mr. John B. Goldhamer. He asked me to get in touch with you about filing an Amicus Curiae brief on behalf of the Children's Rights Counsel in his visitation case pending before the Supreme Court of the United States. Following Rule 37, we request that you file such a brief. We give our consent for you to file such a brief. The Court requires you to postmark your Amicus Curiae brief by December 4, 2000.

Please call me if you have any questions. Nancy Douglas Cook, Esq. represents Appellee. I am by copy of this letter requesting her to give consent for you to file this brief.

Sincerely yours,

/s /Jonathan M. Murdoch-Kitt,

Re: Goldhamer v. Cohen
The Supreme Court of the United States
Docket Number 00-707

Dear Ms. Cook:

As you already know, I have been asked by the Children's Rights Counsel to file an Amicus Curiae Brief in support of granting a Writ of Certiorari, in the aforementioned case before the Supreme Court of the United States. The following is a summary our conversation regarding this case.

1. Although you are a licensed attorney in The Commonwealth of Virginia and substituted counsel of Record Ordered 8/28/00 for the Respondent, you are not admitted before the Supreme Court of the United States.

2. Ms. Deborah Cohen, the Respondent does not intend to fill a Brief in Opposition to the Writ of Certiorari.

3. Ms. Deborah Cohen, the Respondent will not give her consent for the Children's Rights Counsel to file an Amicus Curiae Brief in support of granting the Writ of Certiorari.

4. John B. Goldhamer, the Petitioner, by Counsel, has requested Respondent to give her consent to file an Amicus Curiae Brief Supporting the granting of the Writ of Certiorari.

5. John B. Goldhamer, the Petitioner by Counsel, has given his consent to file an Amicus Curiae Brief supporting the granting of the Writ of Certiorari.

6. Under Rule 37.2 (b) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States, this letter will be reproduced and included with the filing of the Amicus Curiae Brief.

Thank for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

/s/John M. DiJoseph
